The awards ceremony was held in conjunction with the Asian Banker Summit 2014, the leading annual forum for global thought leaders in the Asia Pacific financial services industry.

1. Silverlake Axis and OCBC Bank won the ‘Best Cross-Border Core Banking Implementation Award’ for the standardization of OCBC Bank’s core banking system across Singapore and Malaysia. OneSIBS is a multi-entity, multi-country core banking system that enables cross-country best practices and processes, as well as proven customer offerings to be quickly deployed over the same platform. It covers both conventional and Islamic banking capabilities.
2. Silverlake Axis and Alliance Bank Malaysia Berhad (“Alliance Bank”) were awarded the ‘Best Self Service Banking Project Award’ for Alliance Bank BizSmart Online Banking, a unique online banking solution using mobile and electronic channels to reach out to a niche market segment of small businesses and sole proprietors. The platform offers a comprehensive range of cash management and other business tools specifically aimed at SME customers.
3. Silverlake Axis was named the winner of the inaugural ‘Vendor Satisfaction Survey Gold Award’. For this award category, the Asian Banker conducted a survey of over 40 financial institutions across the Asia Pacific and Middle East. Feedback were received from the financial institutions on the key considerations in their vendor selection process, their choice of leading vendors, vendors they enjoy working with and rating of the vendors on various parameters.
